

IAABO

TIMER'S INSTRUCTIONS

Prepared by the International Association of Approved Basketball Officials, Inc.

TIME PERIODS

- Four (4) quarters
- Each quarter: Eight (8) minutes
- Half-time intermission: 10 minutes (Special exception: 15 minutes)
- Between quarters and each extra period: One (1) minute
- Overtime periods: Four (4) minutes (or half the time of the quarter if quarters shortened)
- NOTE 1: Quarters may be shortened by coaches' agreement; running clock instituted by state association adoption
- NOTE 2: Required substitute (disqualified, uniform infraction, bleeding or injured player) is a 15-second interval of time

TIME-OUTS

- Each team is allotted: Three (3) 60-second and two (2) 30-second time-outs
- Overtime periods: One (1) additional 60-second time-out per team. Teams may use any unused time-outs
- Begin start of time-out on official's signal to start the clock

WARNING SIGNALS

- Quarter/half-time intermission/time-outs: With 15 seconds remaining
- Required substitute: With 15 seconds remaining
- Required notification of officials and teams 3 minutes prior to second half start
- Second horn sounds at end of time-out and intermission or interval to replace a disqualified, injured or player directed to leave the game

START CLOCK

- JUMP BALL: When ball is legally tapped by either jumper
- THROW-IN: When ball legally touches or is touched by a player on the court
- MISSED FREE THROW: When ball legally touches or is touched by a player on the court

STOP CLOCK

- When an official signals held ball, foul, violation or time-out

SUBSTITUTES

- Sound horn for substitutions, unless legally made between quarters or during halftime intermission
- Before sounding horn, substitute must
 - Properly report to the scorer and be ready to enter
 - Report before first warning signal between quarters, halftime intermission, or time-outs
- Disregard coach or player declaring "sub"; this has no part in the substitution procedure

NOTES

- Be at the table a minimum of 12 minutes prior to game time
- Allow reporting official to complete report before sounding horn
- Do not sound horn:
 - When official is ready to administer a free throw or throw-in
 - During multiple free throws for PERSONAL foul
 - Do not sound horn unless ball is DEAD and clock is STOPPED
- After a personal foul, substitutes can only enter game before FINAL free throw and/or AFTER a successful final free throw
- Understand that you are an official and a vital part of the contest. Your cooperation with the game officials and your service to the schools is greatly appreciated

ABSOLUTES

- Participate in pregame meeting with the Referee
- Be seated next to official scorer
- Be attentive, accurate and maintain focus during entire game, avoid distractions
- Maintain eye contact with the official responsible for putting ball in play
- Maintain an appearance of impartiality throughout the game; you are the official timer not the home team's timer